

Tallest tower

Mumbai's pride: The International consulting engineering firm Leslie E. Roberston Associates' (LERA) partner, Mr William Faschan (left), and the Lodha Developers Managing Director, Mr Abhishek Lodha, at a press conference in Mumbai on Tuesday, with a model of the proposed residential tower, which would be the world's tallest. To be located in central Mumbai, the tower called 'World One' would be 117-storey tall, and will be designed by New York-based architects Pei Cobb Freed and Partners. — AFP
