Human Rights Policy

Policy Statement and Purpose

This policy sets out Macrotech Developer Limited's commitment to adhere to internationally recognised human rights and provides a framework for how Macrotech Developers Limited ('we', 'our', 'Company') will uphold these human rights within its operations and throughout its value chain. Macrotech Developers Limited recognises that every person has the right to live a life that is free from fear, harassment and discrimination, and that everyone is entitled to a universal set of human rights. Macrotech Developers Limited is committed to respect and support human rights in accordance with the Indian Constitution & applicable labour laws and international standards such as those enumerated in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and the International Labour Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Objectives

The objective of the policy is to provide an overview of expectations from our associates, labourers and material third - party-contractors and suppliers or any of Lodha's subsidiaries, affiliates and joint ventures.

Applicability

This policy is applicable to:

- 1. This policy is applicable to all associates, full time consultants, part time consultants, GETs, temporary associates, interns and apprentices of the company.
- 2. All labourers working in our operations and other material third-party contractors.
- 3. We also strive to prevent or mitigate adverse human rights impacts at the operations of our service providers, and other entities with which we have a business relationship. Business relationships include business partners, entities in our value chain, and any other entity directly linked to our operations, products or services.

Our Commitment

We are committed to proactively upholding human rights by:

- 1. Child and Forced Labour:
  - Lodha strictly prohibits the employment of child labour or forced labour, including bonded or unpaid labour, modern day slavery and human trafficking, in our offices, and project sites.
  - Lodha responsibly procures goods and services and requires our suppliers and partners to prohibit human rights including prohibiting modern day slavery which includes employment of child labour, forced, bonded or unpaid labour and any form of human trafficking the same in their operations.
